Alberta Citizens Registration Covenant

Printed herewith are two of the documents which will come before citizens of Alberta when registration for Social Credit benefits take place.

I, _____ hereby covenant, promise and agree as follows:

(1) To co-operate most heartily with the Alberta Government, and with my fellow citizens of the Province of Alberta in providing food, clothing and shelter for every one of us.

(2) To work whenever possible, and to accept my remuneration in Alberta Credit as far as I can reasonably do so. In the event of receiving the whole or the greater part of my income in Canadian Currency, I shall exchange as much of it as is convenient for Alberta Credit.

(3) To make no claim nor demand, at any time, for payment in Canadian Currency, of Alberta Credit held by me.

(4) To tender no Alberta Credit in payment of provincial taxes, licenses, royalties, fines, etc., until such time as the Alberta Government shall be able to accept all or part on the taxes, etc.,

In return for my agreement, I understand that the Alberta Government covenants and agrees as follows:

(1) To establish, as early as possible, and maintain a just rate of wages with reasonable hours of labour.

(2) To grant interest-free loans in Alberta Credit on such terms and security as shall be mutually agreed upon, not exceeding 2p.c. for administration charges for building of a home or the establishment of a registered citizen in his own enterprise if conducive to the economic requirements of the province.

(3) To give monthly dividends to all registered Alberta Citizens, and to increase the same as the total production of the province will allow.

(4) To redeem where possible Alberta Credit with Canadian Currency for the purpose of allowing the member to take up residence outside the province or for other essential requirements.

With full understanding of these several declarations, I gladly enter into covenant with the Alberta Government and with my fellow citizens. In witness whereof I affix my signature in the presence of:

DeVar King Is Accident Victim

Victim of a very peculiar accident, DeVar, 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin T. King was almost instantly killed on Broadway Saturday night at 11.10 p.m. when the door of Christensen Bros. truck in which he was riding flew open, letting him fall to the ground, his head striking in such a manner that his skull fractured above and back of the right ear, causing almost sudden death.

As near as can be ascertained DeVar with Leonard Christensen, driver of the truck and Winston Shaw, left the dance at the Blue Moon Pavilion and came down town for a few minutes. They were returning and when directly in front of the Knight Sugar Office the right hand door came open and DeVar slipped out. So quiet was it all that the other occupants did not know what had happened until they noticed his feet just going out. Even Winston Shaw sitting right beside him did not feel him go. The doctor was called immediately but life was extinct almost as soon as the driver stopped the truck and the other occupant with the driver reached him.

Coroner Dr. Fowler was summoned, and after investigation and questioning of the other two in the truck at the time, and two other eye-witnesses decided that no inquest was necessary. The father of the boy was in Edmonton at the time of the accident, but returned home Sunday night.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Stake House with Bishop Walker in charge. A profusion of flowers covered the entire front of the stand, and the large crowd was a testimony to the respect in which deceased and his family are held. Pall bearers were: Teddy Fowler, Ross King, Lloyd Dahl, Maurice Bryant and Mark Heninger. The choir was conducted by Jos. McLean with Mrs. Emma Dahl at the organ.

The opening song was "Oh My Father," prayer by Pres. H.

Government may approve of his registration.

(b) Those who have not yet applied for naturalization cannot register until three years after such application, and if refused, may qualify under (a).

3. Date of Registration:

(a) Registration will be accepted in August and September in the year 1936, and in the month of June etc. hereafter. Minors becoming of age between registration periods may register in June preceding the date of their majority, but will only receive benefits commencing the month following their birth day.

B. R. fiscal Supervision and Cancellation of Registration:

The following acts or omissions, among others, may disqualify or suspend the citizens from the benefits accruing to him under his registration.

1. Gross mis-statement of facts in application.

2. Absence from the province for a period over a month, unless by the permission of the Manager of the local Credit House approved by the general Superintendent.

3. Violation of any undertaking agreed in his covenant.

S. Allen followed by "Abide With Me."

Elder J. W. Evans was the first speaker and stated how shocked he was to return home and learn of DeVar's sudden death. He was a fine young man and it was hard to understand how he could be taken away.

Jos. McLean sang "Goin' Home." Elder James S. Anderson had seen in a dream, DeVar in the spirit world with hundreds of other young people, and DeVar had asked him to tell his parents not to mourn for him, that he was happy in his new surroundings and had no desire to return to earth. There was never an accident in life but had some great purpose behind it if we could only understand it.

Elder C. R. Wing told of the heroic rescue DeVar had made when Teddy Allen got into difficulty in the deep waters of Belly River, and how during the days at the Fathers and Sons Outing deceased had seemed to be the life of the party.

Rulon Leavitt of Glenwood sang "I'm a Pilgrim."

Pres. T. Geo. Wood referred to the rescue of Teddy, and stated how Oscar Kirkham had called DeVar out the following morning at the exercises and congratulated him on his valiant act. Pres. Wood also read from the Book of Mormon regarding the condition of the spirit between death and the resurrection and the certainty of the deceased coming forth in the resurrection of the just.

Bishop Walker, on behalf of the family, thanked all for their assistance in the sad bereavement. He had taught DeVar in many of his Church classes and always found him a bright and apt pupil and one who was dependable on any responsibility. His sudden passing should have a sobering effect on the lives of the youth.

The choir sang "In That Beautiful Land," and the benediction was pronounced by Heber F. Allen of the Stake Presidency. The grave was dedicated by L. L. Palmer, a large cortege following the remains to the cemetery.

NEWS NOTES

RENEW YOUR RECORDER?

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien are enjoying a visit from relatives in Utah.

The School Board and the Town Council met in a caucus Monday night to discuss the affairs of these two bodies, prior to the opening of school the beginning of September.

Hon. Lucien Maynard, Minister without portfolio in the Provincial House, spent the first of the certificates of the Provincial House when he went shopping with them in Edmonton last Wednesday.

"STRONG WORDS"

"When you hear a man sneering at the local paper, says The Brooks Bulletin, because it is not big, cheap and newsworthy as the city dailies, you can bet he does not squander any of his wealth in assisting to make it better, and that generally the paper has done more for him than he has done for it. The man who cannot see the benefits arising from a local newspaper is about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list."

DR ALFRED LEAHEY SOIL SPECIALIST

Dr. Alfred Leachey of Edmonton, Alberta, has been appointed Soil Specialist to succeed the late Sidney Barnes who had had charge of soils in investigations for Western Canada under the Dominion Field Husbandry, Experimental Farms Branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The splendid work which was done by the late Mr. Barnes on the moisture requirements of plants, soil moisture conservation, and soil drifting investigations is well known throughout the Prairie Provinces. Dr. Leachey with his special training and experience is well qualified to carry on the investigations in Dominion Experimental Farms, Stations and Substations, as well as in the new Soils Research Laboratory at Swift Current, Sask.

Dr. Leachey attended primary and secondary schools in Alberta, graduated with the degree of B.Sc. in Agriculture from the University of Alberta, obtained his M.Sc. from the same university, and his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin. For the past ten years as a member of the staff of the University of Alberta and the Research Council of Alberta, he has had wide practical experience in soil survey, soil analysis, and field experiments with fertilizer in Alberta.

Dr. Leachey assumed his new duties on June 15.

"NOBODY READS THE PAPER"

"Nobody reads the paper, so why advertise?" say some merchants. Yet advertising experts of national concerns, men who "stand—and get vested, yearly give a big share of their advertising appropriation to weekly papers.

"Nobody reads the paper," yet if the editor gets the mumps, the linotype breaks down or any thing else happens to delay the paper, the post office and editor are swamped with calls from indignant subscribers.

"Nobody reads the paper," but let the editor misspell one name in an obscure item buried at the bottom of an inside page and 20 readers will "kid" him about it before the paper has been out two hours.

"Nobody reads the paper." Then why do the local publicity hounds bedevil the editor for favorable notices. And why are politicians so eager for the support of the paper?

"Nobody reads the paper," Yet the delinquent subscriber squawks to high heaven when his subscription is stopped.

"Nobody reads the paper." Then why in the name of common sense is a man so anxious to keep his misdeeds from being published? — Ex.

DROWNED AT WATERTON

Albert M. Thompson of Coutts drowned in Cameron Creek about 200 yards above the falls at Waterton Park Monday afternoon. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. From statements of his companions he went up stream to fish and was not seen again until his body was found by Police Tuesday morning in the pool.

Coroner Dr. Stapcote was called and after investigating decided that he must have lost his footing and fell into the pool, either striking his head and stunning him or in such a manner that he could not get out. There were no marks or bruises on the body and the Doctor decided an inquest was unnecessary. Funeral services are not announced yet.

CAN'T YOU LIFT?

(By John Edwin Price)

Can't you lift as much as Samson?

Can't you sing as well as Caruso?

Can't you paint as exquisitely as Raphael?

Can't you release beautiful forms from their marble prisons as well as Michael Angelo?

Can't you sway the masses with your silver-tongued oratory as did Disraeli, Brecher and Bryan?

Can't you make your pen mightier than the sword?

Anyone can ask a bunch of questions like the above, and the answer is also easy. It is "No."

But just review these thoughts

A daisy can't bring the price paid for an American Beauty.

A meadow lark can't outsing a nightingale.

The moon can't shine as brightly as the sun.

An automobile can't cover as much ground in a day as an aeroplane.

Nevertheless, we should not forget that the humble daisy has cheered many load-weary travellers.

Common birds bring joy and gladness to thousands of hearts as they fill the air with sweet song.

The pale moon has been responsible for many happy honeymooners.

And the automobile of high or low degree is still a useful animal.

So cheer up! For the place you were intended to fill, you are a good sized individual.

Lift where you stand. Be the best of which you are capable. Remember, "the mighty oak starts out as a nut." Try each to make two smiles grow where none grew before. Then I'll wager two wooden nickels (without holes) that, with each low descending sun, there will be at least two people in the world who will be glad that your mother fought in the dark to give you birth, and one of them—will be YOU!

OPEN OR CLOSED SCHOOLS?

It is not the purpose nor intention of this article to stampede people or get them unduly excited. Sometimes a blunt, sharp question will start a train of thinking that will result in a great deal of good.

In view of the reduced yields on every farm the Council and School Board are more than a little concerned about the financing of the Town and schools for the remainder of the year, and are hoping that citizens and tax payers will give this matter some serious thought when it comes to settling up their obligations when the thing is finished and the settlement time arrives. It is not the intention nor the hope of either Council or School Board that anyone be really impoverished or denied plenty for the coming months in order to pay taxes. There seems to be, however, an attitude on the part of many that all other bills should be settled before taxes are paid. It is the hope of getting people to feel that the maintenance of the public services of this & any other community depends entirely on the payment of taxes, & to see if an attitude popularizing the payment of as much taxes as is consistent with good judgment cannot be built up. For this purpose a public meeting is called for Monday night in the Opera House, notices of which have been sent to every taxpayer. If you are really interested in the questions which we are facing you will be present.

It costs between $2,000 and $3,000 per month to operate our schools. This means with four months of 1936 to run them it will take roughly $12,000. We have nearly 2500 parcels of property on the Tax Roll for larger and smaller amounts, but taking round figure if an average of $10 per parcel could be paid on these for school purposes, the problem of the schools would be solved. Will you think it over? Everyone is well aware that there are many other items besides taxes to take care of. But and this phase of the question is the side you should consider, do I want my boys and girls in school where they will gain an education to fit them for life, or would I rather have them on the streets learning nothing of any advantage or value to them?

All will agree that first and foremost our institutions must be kept operating. In the answer to this question everyone whose name is on the tax roll must play a part. Make it a point to see that every possible dollar in taxes is paid that is possible to pay, and if you can't pay all, be sure that a fair proportion of your income goes to taxes instead of of it being grabbed off by one or two creditors who consider only their own interests. All these problems and their solution will be discussed Monday night, and every interested citizen who possibly can, should be present and lend their interest in finding a solution to the problems that confront the Town Council and School Board.

THE PLEDGES AND COVENANTS

In another page of the paper we are reprinting the Pledges and Covenants between producers and the Government of the monthly dividends. We hope in the observations that are made we will not be too severely criticized, and we would suggest that everyone read very carefully the text of the pledges before signing on the dotted line.

Millions of dollars and hundreds of thousands of lives have been the cost of obtaining British freedom and justice. It has cost many of us nothing at all, and for that reason probably means little to us. There are thousands of empty chairs around firesides in Alberta as the cost of maintaining the freedom. Let us cherish it very jealously, and guard it as the sacred possession which it is.

We do not mean to insinuate that the signing of these covenants is signing away our birthright. But we are relinquishing some rights. We are signing away our privilege of freedom of action with respect to our returns from labor and enterprise. We are covenanting to accept Alberta credit at 100c on the dollar, and we don't know how much it will be worth.

It would appear from the tenor of the Pledge that any producer signing up for a year without a chance at a dividend, and in this respect would be called a traitor to the Government and his Province. We ask is this attitude fair. Surely a man is free to think the way he wants, and if he cannot understand a problem, should he be ostracized and eschewed by its adherents in a spirit of bitterness and hatred. When the promises were made during the election campaign last fall, every bona fide citizen over the age of 21 would be given the dividend regardless of their thoughts and affiliations. Now, it would seem we must adhere to certain oaths and covenants to even be considered.

We may be wrong on these points, if we are we are quite willing to be corrected. Premier Aberhart has been charged as being the greatest dictator of the age. We are not arguing this question one way or the other. We are anxious to support the Government of our Province. We want it to succeed if it is at all possible, and this is not a tirade against them. We are however, hesitant about signing anything that will tend to lead us into a state where we will be denied our franchise and freedom of thought as we see the condition of some people today. One step in the wrong direction now, may have very serious consequences. All we are asking our readers to do is to consider carefully the text of the oaths you are signing if you feel alright about it, then by all means sign, but, remember an oath is a sacred thing and should be observed very wholeheartedly.

PROTECTION OF STOP SIGNS URGED ON MUNICIPALITIES

Protection of stop signs or markers on various streets and highways is being emphasized by officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

Attention has been drawn to the fact that these signs have been damaged or defaced at some points, making them of no use whatever for purposes for which they are intended.

Civic authorities in some parts of Alberta are repairing or replacing signs which have been damaged or destroyed. But there still are some which have not been put in proper shape. At some points signs which were removed by some mischievous persons have not been replaced.

Visiting motorists in particular are likely to be on a keen lookout for highway signs. When these have been damaged it means that fresh highway traffic hazards have been created, possibly resulting in serious accidents.

Municipal and other authorities are being urged to see that highway signs are kept in proper shape, especially in view of the general feeling that motor tourist traffic this year will reach an unprecedented volume.

Drastic action in dealing with culprits who have been found guilty of defacing signs undoubtedly would prove a strong deterrent to the practice.

Another suggestion is that highway markers should be placed to a greater extent at points where there is any feeling that they would be of value and make for safer driving in this province.— Alberta Motor Association.

New Locomotives Poems in Steel

Canada's newest railway locomotives are poems in steel, graceful, light-weight, semi-streamlined, machines capable of 110 miles an hour.

Radical departures in construction have been made in the Canadian Pacific Railway's five new "3000" engines, the first of which was taken over on Monday, July 27, at a brilliant ceremony which was broadcast on a nation-wide radio net-work through the facilities of the company's Communications Department, and which included addresses by Sir Edward Beatty, G.B.E., K.C., M.L.A., chairman and president, Canadian Pacific Railway; His Worship Mayor Camille Houde of Montreal; William C. Dickerman, president of the Montreal Locomotive Company, where the new locomotive was built; and J. N. Burke, Canadian Pacific veteran.

The new Jubilee Locomotives, so named because they will go into operation in the jubilee year of the company's transcontinental passenger service, will pull a completely new type of train, lighter than the ordinary, semi-streamlined, and comfortable. The new coaches are under construction.

WEEKLY LETTER

PROTEIN SUPPLEMENT FOR EGG PRODUCTION

The time is now approaching when the majority of this year's pullets will be coming into production and the poultry producers will be giving consideration to the question of feeding these birds for egg production. Assuming that well-bred birds have been procured by the producers, it is then only a question of supplying the necessary feed ingredients for maintaining the body, supplying energy and material for the production of eggs.

The average farm producer of poultry is inclined to the idea that all the feed required by the poultry can be raised on the farm. This idea is incorrect except when an unlimited supply of milk is available. Grains produced on the farm form a very satisfactory basis of any poultry ration, but cannot supply sufficient protein for high egg production.

A series of trials conducted at the University of Missouri clearly showed the necessity of a protein supplement for high egg production. In the experiment the following results were obtained.

Grain alone—61 eggs per bird
Grain plus meat scrap—117 eggs per bird.

Grain plus sour milk — 125 eggs per bird.

Grain plus tankage — 120 eggs per bird.

The difference between grain and grain plus meat scrap is 56 eggs or slightly over 4½ dozen in favor of the ration containing the protein supplement. The amount of grain required to produce the eggs was roughly 70 pounds in both groups, and in addition 6.6 pounds of meat scrap were consumed per bird in the meat scrap group.

At the present time 6.6 lbs. of meat scrap can be purchased at not over 20 cents for the lot. Four and a half dozen eggs, the difference due to the feeding of meat scrap would be worth roughly 90 cents at the present time. The difference in favor of meat scrap therefore would be a net profit of 70 cents per bird from the expenditure of 20 cts. which, even during the flush days of 1929 could be considered a reasonable return on an investment.

The use of protein supplement will in all cases be economical with well-bred birds properly housed. However, if skim milk in unlimited quantities is available the purchase of a protein supplement is unnecessary as the milk will provide the protein required. When feeding skim milk it is desirable to feed it always in the same condition, either sweet or sour and at times it may be necessary to limit the water supply of the birds in order to induce the birds to consume sufficient of the liquid milk.

BE CALM

Be calm in arguing: for fierceness makes

Error a fault and truth discourtesy.

Why should I feel another man's mistakes,

More than his sickness or in firmity?

In love I should; but anger is not love,

Nor wisdom neither; therefore gently move.

The people who drive the fastest usually have the least to do after they get where they are going—if they get there, remarks an exchange. And in most cases this is true. Think it over.

T. K. Roberts is building a new van for Ralph Bros. truck following the accident of a couple of weeks ago when "Mutt" rather made kindling wood of the old one.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. O'Brien and family of Lloydminster, Sask. are visiting with relatives and friends here at the present time.

Frank Benekraitis, 24 years of age, was killed on the highway east of Craigmyle late Friday afternoon when the loaded tank truck, driven by his brother Alec skidded in the loose gravel and turned over. Alec suffered a broken leg and cuts and bruises.

Walter Hoare, 35, farmer near Ponoka was killed Friday afternoon when his tractor turned over on a side hill and pinned him beneath it. The coroner, after viewing the scene of the accident, decided an inquest was unnecessary.

O. H. Snow, I. B. Roberts and S. I. Mac were in Lethbridge Friday night last and met with John Vallance, Ben Russell and L. C. Charlesworth on the water situation in the district. They received a very good hearing and the officials promised an early report on their studies of the proposition.

HOW I SAVE MY OWN TOMATO SEED

(By Mrs. B. C. Smith)

Needless to say, our tomato vines are looked over almost every day. When fruiting time comes any big, smooth, perfectly shaped tomatoes are noted. The first one of these to ripen is left hanging on the vine until it is perfectly ripe. The morning of the day that we want it for tea it is brought in and laid in a cool place.

Before tea time I slice it thinly with a sharp knife on a flat plate and with a fork or spoon pick out every seed. Put the seeds in a deep saucer with water. Set it in a sunny window till it ferments, adding water occasionally to keep the seeds covered. They will ferment in less than a week—sometimes in two days, depending on the temperature. Strain through a gravy strainer. Put them back in the saucer, fill it with water and strain again. Spread the seeds on a sheet of "The Producer" and leave till dry. Put them in an envelope and forget about them till seedling time next year.

Done this way, every seed will be clean and separate, instead of being all stuck together as they will be if not all allowed to ferment.

Any seeds that are in a pulp can be saved in the same way—such as cucumbers, muskmelons, etc. The fermentation cuts the pulp and does not injure the seed in any way.

I have sowed my own tomato seeds in this way since the war days and seeded and grown in the same way as any other variety I have ever tried. They have ripe fruit at least a week earlier. They were originally John Baer. I do not know what they are now, as I expect they have been crossed with Abel, Dixon, Eariana, etc. Cabri, Sask. — Western Producer.

PAIN OVER THE HEART

A man who may have faced death under fire without the slightest qualm, or who will coolly pit his skill against all competitors in the ruthless field of high finance, will often "blow up" with the slightest pain over his heart.

Many a strong man has presumed that this has meant the end and has promptly gone to pieces mentally. He points figuratively speaking, to this and that prominent citizen who has without warning collapsed at his desk or in his car, and presumes he will be next.

But is he right in taking such a pessimistic view point? Is there not another side to this subject?

Very few of us get very far along the pathway of life without some pains around the heart. This may not be due to the heart at all. Frequently it is just a disturbance due to gas in the stomach; sometimes it is due to infection or adhesions in the chest. In people undergoing severe mental strain, particularly if they are of the worry-type, transitory praecordial pain is often noted.

Of course it may be of considerable significance. It may indicate a serious condition, particularly in the busy man over fifty. In such case it may necessitate a complete change in one's activities and habits, if serious consequences are to be avoided.

But before getting panicky one should make every effort to find out exactly what is wrong. Do not suppose it is this or that, but go and have a thorough physical examination by a competent physician. Let his judgment, based on many such cases, guide you in your decision. Let him do the worrying.

However, if he says "ease up" do so. If he says "go to bed," send your suit to the pressers & turn in. If he says "no cock-tails" and "only nine holes of golf" it is up to you to do your part. While you may wisely let him do the worrying, remember that it is your heart.

There are three things to keep in mind. One is that the pain may not be from the heart at all. A second, supposing that it is from the heart, that getting panicky is not going to help matters in the slightest, and a third is that a little heart scare may often do the over-strenuous person a lot of good, for, if he slows down and follows the doctor's instructions implicitly, he may actually live a longer, more useful life than had this warning signal not been given.

YOU CAN STILL TEMPESTS

(By John Edwin Price)

Of all the miracles of Jesus, there is one that particularly appealed to our childhood fancy. It was the one in which He stilled the storm at sea. Our lives are hindered by tempests of various kinds. To be sure some are more than tempests in teapots, but others at least appear to be very vital, and tragically real.

We remember reading an account of a prize award for the best picture portraying perfect rest. We felt the contest was held in Paris, but the location is of little importance. The fact of interest is that after thousands of pictures had been examined the judges had finally cast all a side but two.

Those two dealt with apparently opposite themes, yet both had been sent in, hoping to win the prize in this contest of pictures depicting "Perfect Rest."

The one picture was a scene of placid lake. Not a ripple stirred its lazy waters. A cow was rest-

Fortune Teller: "You have a lot of money coming to you."

Man: "Yes, I know that already. I'm a dentist. What I would like to know is how to make my patients pay up."

Nine miners died in Duquoin, Ill., Monday, poisoned by non-offide gas, fighting fire which started when a transformer exploded. Three were overcome when they struck the pocket of gas, and the other six died trying to save their companions.

The still weather and rain on Monday gave the forest fighters in the Pass area a chance to get the upper hand on the flames, & the fires were checked and extinguished. Millions of feet of fine timber were burned before they were finally put out.

whose everlasting arms are always underneath? When the tempests of life roar about you, listen, and you will hear a still voice saying, "Peace, be still; and know that I AM."
